Mason General Hospital Foundation's Auxiliary Guild hosted a COVID-19 safe one-day holiday sale for employees at the Mason General Hospital Gift Shop last month. The event was a major success, raising approximately $4,500 for the Auxiliary Guild. Sales from the Gift Shop support the Auxiliary's medically related scholarship fund for youth and adults in our community.

This was a unique opportunity for employees to do some of holiday shopping while practicing COVID-19 safety precautions. Special kudos go the MGHF Auxiliary, the staff in the Development and Volunteer Services Office and Kim Cooper in the Infection Prevention, Employee Health & Safety Office. The Gift Shop remains closed until further notice, but stay tuned for shopping opportunities in the future.
