Carey Martens, DO

Women's Health

Carey Martens, DO, joined the medical staff at Mountain View Women's Health and Mason General Hospital in 2018. Prior to this he had a private practice in Aberdeen, WA, that focused on bringing state-of-the-art, minimally invasive gynecologic procedures and the evidence-based practice of obstetrics and gynecology to a rural area.

Dr. Martens is passionate about staying ahead of the curve in medical trends and providing compassionate, close-to-home care that allows patients to stay local for the best care possible. He maintains close relationships with University of Washington and the Franciscan Health system to better serve his patients.

Dr. Martens and his wife, Natasha, have two daughters who attend school in the area. During his free time he enjoys performance racing with his wife and traveling with his family.
